

Gus Aids Napping Autoist Who Crashed and Tells How to Ward Off Drowsiness

"I did my best to save him," Gus shouted. The car ahead, instead of rounding the sharp curve, had rushed straight on, bounced across a ditch, crashed through an old rail fence and stopped in a plowed field