

"Tooling against these local plow jockeys," said the driver, "is like taking candy from kids."