

"You're dead right about winter being hard on cars in general," said Gus, "but that's no reason it should be hard on your car if you give it proper attention."

